“ I express condolences to Sis Halliburton's children and husband. She was so very kind to my late mom, Phyllis "Pinky" Brown, who worked for her at the Jack & Jill. I recollect fond memories of the yearly musical, Maranatha, of which I was a cast member. As a child back then, I would bask in her effervescence and contagious smile. RIP my dear. You have left an indelible mark on me and so many others. As you would often say, "Yuh a Hallibutton but yuh nuh wuk fi nutten".

“ You will forever be remembered for that frown on your forehead when nothing made sense.
But then you always found a way to look beyond the wrong and end with encouraging words, followed by that smile....R.I.P. Sis. until we meet on the other side.

“ Revelation 21:4
And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.. To the Halliburton Family, We, my wife Rockell and I want you to take strength in knowing that all the hard experiences in this life are temporary; even the darkest nights turn into dawn for the faithful. When all is finished and we have endured all things with faith in Jesus Christ, we have the promise that "God shall wipe away all tears from your eyes.". Much Love. Barry and Rockell

“ My sister

The last time I saw you was two months before Covid lockdown. I had no idea it would be our last time together. Sheri, Dennis, Zoe and I were planning on surprising you later this year but the surprise was on us. Thanks for the memories. Your cute phrases and sayings, your biting and pinches of love will be missed. You were one of a kind. I'll miss us singing Jack and Jill. Sheri thought we wrote it lol. Al my brother, words cannot express how much my heart breaks for your loss. You two were a match made in heaven. And your years together have been a testament to how true that is. Praying that the God of all comfort will blanket you and the family with His wrap around love. Sis, this isn't goodbye it's see you later. You're more alive now than the day you fell asleep. I love and miss you ❤️ Fay and family
