

Eunis Adassa Williams

April 9, 2025

Leaving: Children Chester “Gene” (Kwasi) (Ismae), Maxine (Henry), Deanne (Tony), Andrea, grandchildren Kano, Kwame, Kareem, Akeem, Kwesi, Diallo, Kofi and Abiola, great grandchildren Kenya, Daniel, Sania and Xavier, stepchildren Elaine, Joan, Doreen, Anthony, other relatives and friends.

Previous Events

Funeral Service

MAY 10. 11:00 AM (ET)

Cathedral of St Jago

De La Vega

Spanish Town, St. Catherine (JM)

Tribute Wall

CS

“ My dear Aunt Eunice lived a long, fruitful, hardworking life with great influence on her children and grandchildren and may her soul Rest In Peace.

Carol Smith-Chung - May 24, 2025 at 11:03 PM

TB

“ Our condolences to the Williams family. We will always remember the kindness that Mother Williams showed to each of our girls, always ready to lend a helping hand, even into her 90s. What a joyful, selfless spirit, and what a legacy of love and faithfulness. Rest in peace, Mother Eunis Williams ❤️ Love, The Tallahassee Bryants

Tallahassee Bryants - May 11, 2025 at 07:47 PM

NT

“ The family of Gustavus Thomas, the brother of Eunis Williams sends their love to our cousins, extended family, and friends. May your memories give you comfort and may you find peace knowing this celebration of life is for a life that was well lived.

Nadine Thomas - May 11, 2025 at 11:41 AM

RA

“ Andrea, Akeem and family sorry for the loss of your mom and grandmother. I pray you will get through this, know you're not alone.

Richard Aldridge - May 11, 2025 at 11:39 AM

MB

“ Dear Andrea & Family,
My entire family (your NY family) sends their love and condolences to you all as you grieve the passing of your mother. (Momma). She has truly been a light in all darkness. May her soul rest in peace. I will always remember her infectious smile and her sense of humor. The day that she and I went shopping and she chose a pair of red shoes for me will always be remembered. She and I had so much fun laughing and walking up and down the shoe store. The way she says my name and the love she showed my grandson Carter are just a few of those great and precious memories. Andrea, you are one of the strongest, kindest, and most thoughtful friends I've known. These are some of the qualities that you got from Momma. So sorry that I wasn't able to celebrate her homecoming. Know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love and blessings,
Marie and family

MARIE BARROW - May 10, 2025 at 09:37 AM

“ Mrs. Eunis Adassa Williams

My Mother-in-law is a special lady. We have been blessed to have had Mrs. Eunis Williams present with us for many wonderful years. With that, we have shared heartfelt memories. What a true blessing she has been. Mrs. Eunis Williams is the mother of my wife (Dr. Deanne A. Bryant). She was, in my estimation, the best mother-in-law in the world. She was a fierce protector and advocate of her family and friends. I was honored to marry her daughter and likewise honored to travel this Earth with her for years. We lived together in Florida where she joyfully helped spread God's love among all she met. Years later we relocated to Virginia where she offered continuous love and support for many. During her final years she joined us as we relocated to Florida where she was again surrounded by a loving community and she provided constant encouragement for me and others. Her life was bounded by gentleness and kindness along with that she held fast a loving faithfulness to our God through Jesus Christ.

My mother Mrs. Rosa Long and her sister aunt Mrs. Jeanetta Tyson, and mother-in-law Mrs. Eunis Williams shared a beautiful relationship. They are all missed dearly, but we are thankful for their life on Earth and the hope of seeing them again one day. With Mother's Day coming soon, we honor Mrs. Eunis Williams who is dear in our lives. Cheerfully we believe that mothers and fathers should be honored everyday. The Bible guides us with knowledge of how to treat our parents - "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you" (Exodus 20:12).

We will miss the presence of Mrs. Eunis Williams. However, her teachings and the paved path she created in life will last for generations. May her strong but gentle soul rest in perfect peace, and may a light of God perpetually shine upon her for now and forever. Rest in peace my dear pretty lady. Rest, rest, rest.

Dr. Tony L. Bryant

Dr. Tony L Bryant - May 10, 2025 at 07:44 AM

CW

“Miss Williams is a part of so many happy childhood memories. My foray into finance might very well have something to do with the countless hours playing “shop” in her backyard with Andrea. I admired her calm demeanor and strength in the face of adversities. I will miss celebrating her “Zoom” birthdays. My sincere condolences and I’m praying for strength and comfort for you all.

*Love,
Coleen*

Coleen Dunbar Wilson - May 10, 2025 at 02:45 AM

WG

Ms. G, as I always addressed her, was of an affable and cheerful disposition. Her greetings were always with a big smile and with and clear sense of sincerity which made conversation easy and without pretense. She was blessed to live a long and impactful life, touched the lives of many in positive ways. Now, she rests from her labors and her works will live on, in and through the lives of her children and family. Maxine (Junior) you were there for her all the time and for that she would be pleased. So, may her soul rest in the eternal peace and in the arms of her Savior and Lord. Praying your strength and comfort in this season. Much love and regards, Willie and Debbie!

William and Wynette Gayle - May 10, 2025 at 08:49 AM

MW

To the family of Ms Eunice, my condolences. Andrea has been a dear friend of our family - the Dawson family since we lived in Jamaica. Based on our interaction with Andrea and the way she loves her family, we know her mom was a woman of faith. Rest in peace mother Eunice

Monica Wynter - May 10, 2025 at 12:03 PM

“ Drene Smith lit a candle in memory of Eunis Adassa Williams

Drene Smith - May 09, 2025 at 11:57 PM

“ To Deanne and siblings, sincere condolences from Audrene and the Smith family. She was like my moms and really felt like family, she loved my son AJ and I remember the times we spent at each other's home and just enjoying life. She was so graceful and serene, loved her kids and grandkids and enjoyed her life to the fullest. Sleep in peace moms, sorry I can't be there but my prayers are with the family, may God give you strength at this time of less and we know she is looking down with love and asking you all to live life to the fullest, grant you peace and live, love, laugh until we meet again. Love to guys, stay strong. Audrene Smith

Drene Smith - May 09, 2025 at 11:55 PM

MM

“ My Sincere condolences to Deanne and family. remembering Ms Williams with fond memories , a beautiful woman of grace, love and faith, may she rest in eternal peace.

marlene mowatt - May 09, 2025 at 09:32 PM

DA

“ To my cousins Maxine, Deanne and Andrea and other relatives, my deepest condolences to the passing of Ms. Green. We grieve her transition because we miss her but we do not grieve as if we have no hope; knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. She has shed her earthly body of pain, sickness and death and put on her perfect body with eternal life. She has faithfully ran the race, fighting the good fight of faith and her reward is her heavenly calling. Therefore, we can take hope if we are in Christ Jesus that we will see her again. I hope these words will comfort you all.

Love in Christ

Denver

Denver Aldridge - May 09, 2025 at 08:16 PM

LA

“ Dear Andrea,

My deepest condolences to you and your family. Though we cannot be with you in person, please know that you and your family remain in our thoughts and prayers. May God give you strength and comfort as you grieve the loss of your mom.

Take comfort in knowing she is at peace now, free from pain and suffering, resting in the arms of her Heavenly Father. There truly is no better place!

I keep remembering that day we went to Congers Lake when she and my mom walked around the lake together, talking and bonding. Hopefully they'll meet again.

I know how challenging it must have been with her living in Jamaica while you were here, but you should take comfort in knowing you did everything possible for her. You did your best. As you navigate this difficult time, remember that I've walked this path too, and just as you were there for me, I am here for you. You are closer to me than my blood sisters, and I will always be by your side whenever you need me.

I love you dearly, and remember, your mother is only a memory away and will forever live in your heart.

Love you

Lorna Aldridge - May 09, 2025 at 07:09 PM

LA

“ Thinking of you both as you celebrate your mother and grandmother's life. She will live on in your heart and memories. Sending you healing prayers and wishing you moments of peace and comfort as you remember her. I love you both.

LaNae Aldridge - May 09, 2025 at 03:55 PM

AS

“ Some people come in our lives and become part of our existence on the earth, forever. Ms. Williams is one of those people. This lady, both classy and graceful, will forever be remembered for her unwavering commitment to making this world a better place. I cherished the memories of her telling me, in our numerous discussions about politics, that she is a comrade and I am a labourite. lol. In spite of the differences in opinions, our respect for each other was mutual.

I sincerely believe that Ms. Williams had love in her heart for those who she encountered. We can honor the legacy of Ms. Williams by cultivating love and respect for each other. We can continue to be inspired by her example to love our neighbors as ourselves. Let us strengthen relationships with each other by building Bridges not Walls.

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family and friends of Ms. Williams. Although her journey on this earth has ended, nevertheless, the pleasant memories of this gentle gracious lady be a blessing that lives in our heart, forever. May her soul Rest in Eternal Peace.

Albert Stoddart - May 09, 2025 at 10:20 AM

DA

“ Dahalia lit a candle in memory of Eunis Adassa Williams

Dahalia - May 08, 2025 at 10:41 PM

DA

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Dahalia - May 08, 2025 at 10:40 PM

DD

“ Ms. Williams you will be missed beyond measure. You were one of the constant in my life from I was a child in Spring Garden. Your home was my second home where I spent countless days from morning, noon and night especially during our holidays from school. You fed me sometimes from breakfast to throughout the day until mama would start calling me to come home. If she did not, I would just stay like I was home because you made me feel like I was at home.

I am so thankful for all those beautiful memories, and for the stories you shared with me about conversations you had with ma. I laugh every time I remember the last time I saw you, and you told me about one particular conversation you had with her telling you that she can't figure how what else to do with me because I was so facety and curse like a sailor, and how you said to her “Ms Sue don't worry, she'll grow out of it.” You were right...well sort of, still somewhat facety Ms. Will but in a controlled polite way:)

In the last few years when Andrea would give you messages, show pictures or videos from us she would ask if you remembered us, and you would say “of course, they're my other children.” That brought such joy to my heart; you were like my other mother from Spring Garden. My heart is broken right now that you're no longer with us in this world, but your graceful legacy will live on...you will never be forgotten.

I will cherish all the memories, and thank God that he's given us a gift called 'memories' that not even death can take away.

My deepest condolences Gene, Maxine, Deanne, Andrea, grandchildren, stepchildren and the rest of family...my heart is with you. I pray that today and always all your beautiful memories give you peace.

May God wrap his arms around you all and give you strength and solace.

Rest in peace Ms Will, and may you find eternal joy in God's embrace.

Dahalia Dunbar - May 08, 2025 at 10:09 PM

JW

“ My heart goes out to my dearest friend Deanne and Family as you mourn the loss of your beloved Mother, Ms. Eunis. I was fortunate enough to be in Ms. Eunis' presence a number of times and will always remember her beautiful smile and quiet grace, but it was through many conversations over the years with Deanne, that I came to understand and admire Ms. Eunis' inner strength and her unwavering devotion to her children.

My dear friend, D, I know the deep bond and love you shared with your Mom, and understand how much you (as well as Maxine, Andrea, other siblings and family members) are hurting. I hope and pray that the empty spaces left behind with your Mom's passing will one day be filled with a lifetime of beautiful memories as you continue to celebrate and honor the life she lived. Your many pictures and videos documenting her life will be a blessing that will comfort you with tears and laughter in the coming months and years. She will forever be with you.

Rest in peace, Ms. Eunis.

With deepest sympathies,

Judith Whittingham

Judith Whittingham - May 08, 2025 at 04:20 PM

SH

“ I know your Spirit and memory will remain with us forever. You showed us all what real Grace, Love and Inner Strength was. You are loved and truly missed.

Shelley

Shelley - May 07, 2025 at 11:34 PM

“FR: Dr. Cecil Cornwall

Re: The Life and Legacy of a Beautiful Soul – Mrs. Eunis Adassa Williams

What a magnificent woman, truly a virtuous woman. Though my encounter with her was brief, Mrs. Eunis Williams left me with a lasting memory of her infectious smile and warm words of encouragement. Her legacy is etched in the hearts and lives of those she touched: her children, family members, and friends, and it now becomes your charge to carry that legacy forward.

To Dr. Deanne Williams-Bryant:

The sentiments shared by our fellow TEAM members of the Western Hospitality Institute—where you serve as Board Chair—are equally felt by your friend and professional colleague, yours truly, Dr. Cecil Cornwall.

Each Sunday, I celebrate my mother’s preparations for church, and you have always celebrated with me, along with others who look forward to seeing her photo. I mention this because I know how close you were to your mom and recall the words of encouragement you gave me as your own mother prepared to transition. While I still have my mother with me and may not fully grasp your pain, I can relate through the losses I have personally experienced.

I remember the stories you shared: your mom traveling to Virginia and wherever you lived, to spend time with her beloved daughter, Deanne. I remember how, in later years, you traveled back home to Jamaica when she could no longer make the trips. She loved you deeply and was so very proud of you. I recall speaking with her a few times while she was visiting you in the U.S., and she would joyfully recount the fun times she was having with her daughter and granddaughter: your only child. To her, you were her prized daughter, a source of immense pride.

I was so happy she lived to witness one of your greatest milestones: earning your doctorate. She celebrated the moment you became Dr. Deanne Williams—a title that rang proudly in her heart. And when your husband, Dr. Toney Bryant, became her son-in-law, it was yet another proud moment for her.

Your friends and colleagues now walk with you through this season of grief. You made your mother proud, and I am sure your siblings did all they could, especially the sister who cared for her in her final years. To that sister, I say congratulations on a job well done. She created a space of peace and serenity for your mother, just as I strive to do for mine.

As I reflect on the love you and your mother shared and your encouragement to me to cherish every moment with my mom, I now remind you of the same: those precious memories are the vehicle through which you will navigate this pain. Laugh when you need to. Cry when you must. It is healing.

Sleep on, Lady Eunis Williams. The angels await you. You gave your best and only your best was ever enough. Now it's time to rest in your heavenly home. Rest well, for your contribution made this world better than you found it.

Cecil Cornwall - May 07, 2025 at 11:11 PM

JH

“ Dearest Andrea and Family - I am thinking of you during this difficult time as you mourn the loss of your beloved matriarch, Ms. Eunis. She lived a long and purposeful life on her earth's journey and touched the lives of many along the way. May you find peace and comfort in the wonderful memories amassed with her over the years and may she sleep in eternal and heavenly peace.

My deepest condolences, Janice P. Holness, New York, USA

Janice Holness - May 07, 2025 at 05:51 PM

DA

*To my cousins, Maxine Deanne and Andrea,
My deepest condolences to the passing of miss green. We grieve her transition because we miss her but we don't grieve like we don't have any hope knowing that to absent from the body is to be present with the lord. she has shed her earthly body racked with pain sickness and death and put on her perfect body and eternal life. She has faithfully run the race fight the good fight and ,her reward is her heavenly calling. So take hope if you are in Christ you will see her again. I hope these word will comfort you all.*

*Love in Christ
Denver*

Denver Aldridge - May 08, 2025 at 12:48 PM

AS

“ My fondest memory of my grandmother is her boundless enthusiasm for celebrating life and cherishing her retirement by spending time with her grandchildren. She would stroll to the fruit market, introducing me to guinep and sugar cane as a child during the day, and later, a warm cup of Milo before bedtime.

Though our moments together became fewer over the years, I've come to appreciate just how courageous you were. You faced life's challenges with unwavering strength, especially after the untimely loss of Grandfather. Your grit and determination taught me that even in the face of hardship, it's possible to carve out the path you want in life.

You've run your race and passed the baton. Now it's up to your grandchildren and great-grandchildren to keep running, carrying forward the principles you instilled in your children.

Godspeed and rest in power, Grandma Eunis.

Akeem Spencer - May 07, 2025 at 05:37 PM

HB

“ Deepest sympathy to the Williams family on the passing of your mother.

Mrs. Williams (Miss. Green) was my first employer as a teenager in the picturesque green hills of Spring Garden St. Thomas. Home to one of Jamaica's National hero. The most Honourable Paul Bogle. Mrs. Williams you served the District well as a post mistress, you were a kind, pleasant and soft spoken person. You will be sincerely missed, may your temporary journey be perfumed with your Saviours peace and love. Bye walk good!

Hillary Henry-Brown (Joy) and family. Toronto, Canada 🇨🇦

Hillory Brown - May 07, 2025 at 06:32 AM

“ Message of Condolence

From the Western Hospitality Institute (WHI)

We, the management, faculty, staff and student body of Western Hospitality Institute (WHI) stand in heartfelt solidarity with you, Dr. Deanne Williams-Bryant, and your family during this time of mourning and celebration of the life and legacy of your beloved matriarch, Mrs. Eunis Adassa Williams.

In this solemn hour, we join in lifting you up with love, prayer, and deep admiration. Your mother's elegance, warmth, and ever-contagious smile left an impression on all who had the honor of meeting her. We admired the grace with which she carried herself, and her humility and charisma live on through you. Indeed, she was a reflection of kindness, strength, and quiet dignity.

As we reflect, we are reminded of the comforting lines from a cherished hymn:

*"Because He lives, I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives, all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living, just because He lives."*

And in the words of a timeless poem:

*"Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed, and ever dear."*

Dr. Williams-Bryant, in your esteemed capacity as Board Chair, we the faculty, staff, and students of WHI extend our deepest condolences and the sincerest of wishes as you journey through this season of grief. May your heart be comforted by the words of Isaiah 41:10 (NIV):

*“So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”*

You and your family have offered Mrs. Williams the highest form of love—care, devotion, and dignified hospitality. May that legacy of honor continue through generations.

May the God of all comfort wrap you in peace that surpasses all understanding, and may the light of her memory guide your steps with courage and faith.

Sleep in peace, noble matriarch, until we meet again.

*With deepest sympathy,
The Western Hospitality Institute Family*

Odaine James - May 06, 2025 at 05:07 PM

JY

“ On behalf of the Young and Geohagan family, we take great pride in saying thanks to Mrs. Williams (Green) for the service she provided to the community of Spring Garden and Middleton. She served the community for an extended period of time, much longer than was expected. Her conduct in executing her responsibilities was done at the highest level of professionalism . I am sure that the community as a whole will attest to this. She retired many many years but her name is still been referred to in the fondest of manner - this can never be replaced or replicated.

We are so grateful for the relationship she had with our mom Ruth Young they shared similar outlook in life and the substance of what a good should be. Her dedication to her children was a lesson to many. We are sure that she was proud of the individuals they are today. She was a woman of great faith and instilled such belief in her children. We are aware that she faced unexpected difficulties in her life, but she buckled down with grit and determination and was triumphant through it all.

The Young family would like to remind you that she is not here with you physically ; however, it is noteworthy to mention that her legacy will remain intact and for the ages. To the girls , we want to impart to you that we have travelled down this road and can say that there will be grief and sorrow but joy cometh in the morning. Keep comforting each other as that is what your mom would have you do. May your mom's soul rest in peace and light perpetual shine on her.

Janis Young - May 05, 2025 at 07:34 PM

TR

“ I remember the days when we laughed and walk Petersburg neighborhood together I still remember those hefty smiles and will forever hold them close to my heart

Tressan - May 05, 2025 at 06:55 PM

TF

“ Blessings and prayers to my best friend Kano & family. May God give you all the peace and understanding during these times. Love Tino

- ATLANTA

TINO S FARRINGTON - May 05, 2025 at 02:05 AM

FJ

I join the family, loved ones, colleagues, associates, and well wishers in paying tribute to Lady Eunice Adassa Williams. She was certainly a beautiful lady with all the dignity of a proud Jamaica Post Office Mistress and the humility of a true public servant. I met Lady Eunice Adassa Williams in Chester, Virginia, at the home of Lady Deanne and Dr. Tony. She was such a loving and lovely lady. I recall how she and I discussed Jamaica politics without disclosing our party affiliation--she was too much of a civil servant to do that. I got the feeling that she liked me and would have gladly endowed a daughter to me if she had one available. She was just such a lady. And she was a Christian 🙏 . May herself rest in peace until the blessed day of the general Resurrection when we will meet beautiful Lady Eunice Adassa Williams around God's throne. Amen 🙏
Franklin D. R. Jackson

Franklin Jackson - May 06, 2025 at 10:10 AM

KC

“ In loving memory of you..... My 🌹 1stLady aka Grandma. I love you so much. I miss our every other day conversations. I miss hearing you say “I love you my beautiful granddaughter “ 💕💕

Kano Cole - May 04, 2025 at 06:24 PM

NT

In Loving Memory of Mrs. Williams (affectionately known as Ms. Green) Mrs. Williams, fondly known as Ms. Green in the Spring Garden and Middleton communities, was more than our beloved postmistress—she was a beacon of warmth, humility, grace, and kindness. With every smile and thoughtful word, she served with dedication and heart. A lifelong friend of my mother, Birdie A. Telfer, their bond was so strong that they became godmothers to each other’s children—Mrs. Williams to my late sister, Maxcine, and my mother to her daughter, Deanne. That connection has kept our families close through the years. Though she later moved away, her joyful spirit and the warmth she shared at the post office remain vivid in our hearts. I’ll always remember her welcoming smile and how effortlessly she found my mother’s mail. Thank you, Mrs. Williams, for your years of service and your generous heart. You will be dearly missed. Rest peacefully, until we meet again.

The Telfer family, Mississauga, Ontario, Canada

Norma Telfer - May 08, 2025 at 07:47 PM