“ I have known Auntie Norma, as she is lovingly and affectionately called by my family, for a number of years. Her calming, slow and soft tone was always able to bring me peace whenever we communicated. Auntie Norma, though allergic to many things, would bake these absolutely divinely delicious cakes for my family which we would sit around, eat and talk about life's ups and downs. She was a simple lady who was always a positive source of encouragement. Auntie Norma and my mom Norma were best of friends that bonded over a whole sleuth of things but FLOWERS was one of the main things. They would both share the blooms of their gardens back and forth via in person or in pictures via the cellphone. One would take a plant from one's home and plant at the other and vice versa. Auntie Norma was also the first person to have me actually touch a turtle! This sweethearted lady will be greatly missed. May she rest in heavenly peace. 🙏
