“ Mom, I may never understand why you had to feel so much pain or why you had to leave me so early. But I am trusting God knowing that his ways, his will are perfect.

You were my source of strength and my best friend. Your warmth and generosity touched countless lives, and your memory will continue to inspire us. Though you are no longer with us, the lessons you taught and the love you gave will remain forever in our hearts. Rest peacefully, my Hunni bunny, you will be deeply missed and always cherished.

I love and miss you, dearly ❤️💜👤💜

You were a special person to me. We shared some refreshing and happy conversations even when we weren't in close proximity, and for all those times we laughed and talked about life I have cherished to this day. Didn't know when we communicated in January that would have been the last but cherished memories live on. Rest in peace my dear friend 💕
